The Heart Behind The Apron

Cooking the Thanksgiving feast for a large crowd often starts long before Thanksgiving Day.

The day before Thanksgiving—Wednesday, November 26, this year—is a day to honor these intrepid holiday chefs and the aprons they so dutifully don. It's Tie One On Day.

Writer EllynAnne Geisel founded Tie One On Day in 1999. While writing an article about aprons, she was struck by the unique beauty of apron fabrics and design, leading her to curate a traveling exhibition featuring more than 600 aprons. She calls aprons the “armor of domesticity” and shows a true passion for the art of homemaking.

The central tenets of Tie One On Day are qualities of kindness and generosity. Geisel urges us to celebrate by wrapping some home-baked goodies inside an apron and gifting it to someone you care about. Write some kind words on a note and tuck it into the apron pocket, and your gift is bound to warm both their belly and their heart.

Thanksgiving

As Thanksgiving approaches, if you'll be joining us here at WSL for our Thanksgiving meal, please RSVP through our receptionist. If you plan to take your loved one out for the day, kindly let us know in advance. Thank you for helping us plan a wonderful holiday celebration!

Name of the Month

What is it about the name Rogers in November? The name is shared by many celebrities born this month. There's Will Rogers, one of the most famous satirists of the 1920s and 1930s; he was born November 4, 1879. Roy Rogers, the famous singing cowboy and actor, was born November 5, 1911. Kenny Rogers, the baseball pitcher who once pitched a perfect game (not the country music star), was born November 10, 1964. George Rogers Clark, the American Revolutionary War general known as the “Washington of the West,” was born November 19, 1752. Baseball pitcher Buck Rogers was born November 5, 1912, and the first radio broadcast of Buck Rogers in the 25th Century aired on November 7, 1932. If you know anyone who's expecting a baby in November, suggest the name Rogers. It just may be the perfect name for a November baby.

November Greetings to all our Friends & Families

Welcome November. A month of celebrating our Veteran's, day light savings time and the Thanksgiving Holiday!! The trees have lost their leaves, the days and nights are colder, and everything from blessings to turkey to pumpkin pie are now the theme for the month of November!

We had lots of fun events in the month of October. We were blessed with the warm weather and the changing leaves that led to beautiful colors this fall season. Our residents enjoyed the great outdoor events that were offered in the month of October. Be sure to check out our Facebook page (Warde Senior Living) to see all of the great pictures from our October events.

As everyone is aware, the COVID-19, Flu and RSV season is upon us! We were pleased to have been able to offer our residents the necessary vaccines on October 15th! We have a good head start here at Warde at keeping our residents and associates healthy this upcoming winter season!! Please be sure you are staying as healthy as you can with the holidays quickly approaching.

We celebrated some very special associates in the month of October. We had celebrations for our Food/Culinary Service Department and our Rehabilitation Team, a fantastic luncheon with gifts was given to them for all they do for us!! We also celebrated Environmental Services to honor our Housekeeping Team and our Facilities Maintenance Team with gifts and a dinner out. We celebrated Pastoral Care Week. Sister Kathy McInnis and Deacon Richard Shannon – THANK YOU for all you for our residents, families and associates! Be sure to check out the celebration pictures on Facebook. Warde Senior Living loves & appreciates our associates!!

Special Days/Events in November: Please refer to the November Life Enrichment Calendar!

As everyone knows, Thanksgiving is the main holiday for the month of November. Do you know the spiritual meaning of Thanksgiving? “Thanksgiving - confession, praise, and offering. When we give thanks in the truest sense of the biblical word, we offer God our praises and acknowledge to Him that He is the Giver of all good gifts.” We, at WSL, have so many blessings to be thankful for. Take a moment and a deep breath to reflect on what you are thankful for this Thanksgiving season.
